Was or Were Subject-Verb Agreement Worksheet

The basic rule is that a singular subject takes a singular verb while a plural subject takes a plural verb.

Directions: Read each sentence and circle the verb (was or were) to complete each sentence.

Example A: Sam (was / were) growing taller each day.
Answer: was

1. He (was / were) excited about the first day of school.
2. We (was / were) traveling across the country.
3. I (was / were) going to tell you, but now I'm not.
4. We (was / were) going to the movies, but then it started to rain.
5. She (was / were) one of the star players on the volleyball team.
6. We (was / were) excited about the championship game.
7. They (was / were) walking around the block.
8. He (was / were) a very dependable student.
9. Can you tell if they (was / were) prepared?

Directions: Write a sentence with each verb below.

10. was-

_____

11. were-

_____

Subject - Verb Agreement

1. AND
When the subject of a sentence is composed of two or more nouns or pronouns connected by and, use a plural verb.
She and her friends are at the fair.

However, when the two nouns refer to only one person or thing, use a singular verb.
The singer and doctor is coming.

2. OR
When two or more singular nouns or pronouns are connected by or, use a singular verb.
The book or the pen is in the drawer.

When a singular subject is connected by or to a plural object, put the plural subject last and use a plural verb.
The serving bowl or the plates go on that shelf.

3. NOT ONLY... BUT ALSO...
When the subject begins with Not only A but also B, the number of the verb is determined by B.

4. WITH, TOGETHER WITH, INCLUDING, ACCOMPANIED BY, IN ADDITION TO, AS WELL AS
Expressions such as with, together with, including, accompanied by, in addition to, as well as do not change the number of the subject. If the subject is singular, the verb is too.
The president, accompanied by his wife, is travelling to India.
All of the books, including yours, are in that box.

5. A NUMBER OF/ THE NUMBER OF
A subject beginning with a number of usually takes a plural verb (because a number of is replaceable by some).
A number of applicants are bilingual.

However, when an adjective is situated between a and number, a singular verb may be used.
A higher number of applicants is expected this year.

A subject beginning with the number of usually takes a singular verb.
The number of applicants is higher this year.

Complete the following sentences with a verb form that agrees with the subject. Either could be used here We use a plural verb after the expression 'a number of' Use singular verbs with uncountable nouns. Here the subject is the singular expression 'the list'. Nouns such as news and information are always singular. In the simple present tense when the subject is a singular noun or pronoun, the verb takes the marker -s. Names of books are singular. Here the reference is to the entire sum and not to the coins and currency notes that make up 1000 dollars, so we need a singular verb here. When we connect two nouns with neither…nor, the verb agrees with the noun close to it. Here we use the plural verb, because the noun close to it (teachers) is plural. Answers 1. A number of students are absent today. 2. The girls are dancing merrily. 3. In hot weather milk turns sour fast. 4. The list of eligible students has been published. 5. The news is false. 6. The earth rotates on its own axis. 7. Gulliver's Travels is an interesting novel. 8. Thousand dollars is a huge amount. 9. The boy was actually waiting for school to reopen. 10.
